

Overview

Few professionals spend their entire life not knowing; What is a dispute?, How to avoid it? How to prepare for it? How to enforce it?

Answers to all these questions can be shortened in first grasping the knowledge and know how of principles of construction arbitration.

This course, as part of Programs for Professionals (PP), will introduce in details the construction disputes and their way of resolution under the FIDIC 87/99.

The main objective of this course is to assist mid-management-levels and seniors to learn more about the different methods to prepare and assist in a dispute resolution case and the ways to reserve their rights and entitlements under the construction contract.

Program Objectives

The objectives of this program are to:

- Assist the attendees to learn and know more about the different alternatives of dispute resolutions before going to arbitration.
- Present the attendees with an introduction to learn and know more about the most common rules of arbitration in Egypt and GCC area.

Who Should Attend?

- We believe if you are a: Project Manager, Construction Engineer, Site Engineer, Planning Engineer, Cost Engineer, Procurement Engineer, Contract Engineer, Tendering Engineer or Lawyer, then this course is a must-be-taken for you to develop your career and expand your knowledge in new area.
- Also, senior engineers from all trades and specialties whether working for owners, consultants or contractors and need to increase their contractual to cope up with contemporary projects sophisticated demands.

Program Structure

This courses is offering the basic knowledge, skills and tools on principals of construction arbitration.

- Number of hours: 25 hours
- Duration: 5 days

The course is run in an entertaining interactive environment utilizing application workshops and real-live case studies.

*“Do Not Read Your Contract
When In Need To.....*

Read It Before Signing It....”

Course Language;

The presentation, supplied documents and workshop exercises of the course shall all be in the English language.

However, and based on the trainees' desire, use of Arabic language during oral explanation could be presented.

“Administer your contract properly.... Or Pay for it”

Course Outlines

- Definitions.
- Settlement of Disputes under FIDIC 87/99.
- Introduction to Arbitration.
- Arbitration vs. Litigation.
- Introduction to the Arbitration Law.
- Introduction to the Arbitration Rules of UNCITRAL (Model Law for International Commercial Arbitration).
- Initiation of the Arbitration Proceedings.

Course Outlines

- Appointment of the Arbitrators.
- Commencements of the Proceedings.
- Preliminary Meeting.
- Preparation of the Pleadings.
- Rule of Evidences.
- Conduct of the hearing.
- Arbitration Award.
- Enforcement of the Award.

AL MANSOURY
Contracts Management | Arbitration Practice

Villa 147 Al Showaifat St.
Fifth Settlement, New Cairo
Cairo
Egypt

www.almansouryclaims.com
course@almansoury.com
Tel.: +2 02 2616 0940
Fax: +2 02 2616 0940